CAUSE

Mr. Rowe commenced his first term of supervision on January 18, 2018. On January 15, 2020, he was revoked for unlawful use of controlled substances, failure to report a change in residence, failure to report law enforcement contact, failure to submit to drug testing, failure to adhere to his home confinement schedule, failure to adhere to the residential reentry center rules, frequenting places where controlled substances were sold, and associating with criminals. He was sentenced to seven (7) months imprisonment and continued on supervised release for twenty-nine (29) months. Rowe's second term of supervised release commenced on January 28, 2020.

On November 28, 2020, the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department was dispatched to 2482 Cavern Cove Way, Las Vegas, Nevada, in reference to a burglary. Details of the call indicated that a black male and a Hispanic female had been in the house but had already left the residence in a black Mercedes.

Upon arrival officers met the victim, Antoinne Bell, who stated she had arrived at her residence and noticed an older black model Mercedes, four-door with tinted windows, parked on the street in front of her residence. She proceeded to enter her residence through the side garage door, but once inside she discovered a male and a female sitting in her stairway.

Bell recognized the male as a friend of her ex-boyfriend. He was known to her as "Remy," but did not know his real name and she could not identify the female he was with. Bell immediately noticed that the front door had been broken and she asked them how they had entered her residence. Remy responded that it was his friend's house and that she should leave.

Bell instructed him to leave her residence, but he began to speak with someone on telephone. Bell stated Remy informed the individual on the telephone that she was there and that he should leave from around the corner. Remy then walked out of her residence and began to yell at her calling her a "bitch" and stating that he was real active with guns and he was not afraid to use them.

Bell informed officers that they left residence without taking anything. However, there was an active protection order against her ex-boyfriend, Victor, due to her being a victim of Domestic Battery. She was aware that Victor had been released from custody, but Victor's brother had already picked up his belongings. Bell believed that Victor had sent his friends to see if Bell was at her residence.

On February 25, 2021, Rowe was arrested for Home Invasion, in violation of N.R.S. 205.067.2, Felony, by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. At this time, this case remains pending and a Preliminary Hearing is scheduled for April 28, 2021.

Due to Rowe's current non-compliance, it is recommended that the Court modify his conditions of supervised release to include 90 days of Home Confinement with Location Monitoring as a sanction for his arrest and so he can be closely monitored. Please see attached Waiver of Hearing signed by Rowe agreeing to this modification. If Your Honor has any questions or concerns or prefers an alternate course of action the undersigned will be available at the Court's convenience.
